Circular No. 107—Loans, dated 23*rd July* 1918

To

The Heads of Departments and Offices,
Treasury Officers including Officer in charge of State Huzur Treasury.

Has the honor to invite reference to para 9 of this office Circular No. 438—TAD (A). dated the 2nd October 1917, re payment of advances sanctioned to Government Officers, and to state that agreeably to the procedure therein described, the practice of authorising payment of house-building and other advances to Government employees will be discontinued and the following procedure adopted in future.—

(1) As soon as the Government Order sanctioning the advance is received by the Head of the Department or office and communicated to the officer to whom the advance is sanctioned the latter should execute the bond, if any, required by the rules.

(2) The receipted bill or voucher presented at the Treasury for payment of the advance should bear a certificate of the Deputy Commissioner to the effect that the necessary bonds have been executed and should be accompanied with the duly authenticated copy of the Government Order sanctioning the advance received by the officer drawing the advance. This copy should be attached to the voucher sent to this office in support of payment made. Receipts for payment of second instalments of house-building advances should bear a certificate of the Deputy Commissioner to the effect that he has satisfied himself that the first advance had been fully spent upon the building and the second instalment may be paid.

(3) In the case of advances to Establishments, arrangements will be made by the Head of the Office for recovering the advance in accordance with the rules. The voucher for payment of the advance should be countersigned by the Head of the Office who draws the salary of the officer receiving the advance before it is presented at the Treasury. Such countersignature is necessary to keep the Head of the Office informed of the advance drawn and to enable him to make the necessary deduction from salary drawn for the debtor. Bills of Gazetted Officers need not be countersigned as they will themselves arrange to make the deductions from their salary bills. Particulars as to the nature of the advance, the serial number of the instalment and the amount deducted should be clearly noted in their Salary Bills.

M. N. KRISHNA RAO,
Comptroller.
